CONCLUSION

Distinguished dignitaries, ladies and gentlemen; I have presented a very succinct version of our collegiate life. We all know that the education is an endless mission.

In the words of Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru: “A College stands for humanism, for tolerance, for progress, for adventure of ideas, for seeking knowledge and for search of truth. It stands for the onward march of human race towards ever higher objectives”.

In this regard our College was abuzz with efficacious activities throughout the academic year. The whole gamut of activities included Guest Lectures, Awareness Programmes, Community Reach Programmes, Certificate Courses, Coaching Sessions, Exposure Visits, Training Sessions, Camps, Fests and Seminars. The ultimate objective of our fervent functioning is to enlighten, enrich and empower the student community. Towards this end we strain every sinew, go the additional distance and do whatever we can. We, in our endeavors have been guided and supported by the caring Management headed by his Lordship Most Rev. Dr Aloysius Paul D’Souza, the Bishop of Mangalore, Rev Fr Wilson Vitus D’Souza, the Secretary of CBE, Very Rev Fr Gerald D’Souza, the Correspondent, Rev. Dr Antony Prakash Monteiro, the Campus Director and all the members of the Managing Committee and the benevolent people. I express my heartfelt gratitude to all of them. God had blessed this great institution with ever enthusiastic and dedicated Teaching and Administrative Staff who are always with me in taking this institution to future destiny. The academic year 2013-14, with all the productive activities has been peaceful and soothing.

We are proud of the success story of our College. We cherish the milestones we covered with humility. However, we know that we cannot be complacent and bask in the past glory. Instead, constantly draw inspiration from the legacy of success and march forward with renewed devotion and dedication to elevate St Philomena College to even greater stature.

Let good deeds be an inseparable part of our functioning. Let success be our habit. Let many more laurels be showered on the institution. I wish you the best wishes of the College Annual Celebration.

Thank You
