

Programme :BSW

Course Outcomes of the course “Introduction to Social Work”

- CO1. Acquire basic knowledge of social work profession
- CO2. Understand client and social worker
- CO3. Analyze scope of social work profession/fields
- CO4. Understand various methods to do the social work profession
- CO5. Know various services that can render to the society
- CO6. Enter into the profession in the areas of –Child Welfare Service, Women Welfare, Labor Welfare, Medical Social Work, Correctional Administration, etc
- CO7. Write report fluently with the help of field work experience
- CO8. Develop skills of communication when do the home visit
- CO9. Examine code of ethics in social work profession
- CO10. Develop theoretical understanding of system approach

Course Outcomes of the course “Basic Sociological Concepts”

- CO1. Develop group activities with regard to societal problems
- CO2. Understand the cultural values in society
- CO3. Establish relationship in social institutions
- CO4. Able to perform Family Interventions
- CO5. Focus on communal harmony in community
- CO6. Develop the political knowledge and work in democratic method

Course Outcomes of the course “Early Childhood Development”

- CO1. Differentiate the concept of Growth and Development
- CO2. Acquire knowledge regarding development and factors influencing it
- CO3. Understand the various patterns of development that takes place in a child and its significance
- CO4. Analyze the different needs of a child and its significance in all round development of a child
- CO5. Identify the role of parents in all round development of a child
- CO6. Explore the concept of Child Friendly School and importance of it in reducing the school dropout rate
- CO7. Acquire knowledge regarding the various life skills

Course Outcomes of the course “Fundamentals of Nutrition”

- CO1. Know the concept of Nutrition and its importance on health
- CO2. Follow balanced diet
- CO3. Discuss the relationship between food, health and diseases
- CO4. Know the concept of nutrients and its classification
- CO5. Enables students to practice good dietary habits
- CO6. Demonstrate good life style
- CO7. Assess the disease caused by deficiency of nutrients
- CO8. Demonstrate different types of cooking methods
- CO9. Creating awareness to improve the nutritional status of the people or in the community
- CO10. Awareness regarding food adulteration practices

Course Outcomes of the course “Fundamentals of Social Work (Elective)”

- CO1. Basic knowledge of Social Work profession
- CO2. Understand between client and social worker
- CO3. Scope of social work profession/fields
- CO4. Various methods to do the social work profession
- CO5. Various services that can be rendered to the society

Course Outcomes of the course “Methods of Social Work”

- CO1. Develop skills in different methods of social work
- CO2. Acquire skills in Social Case Work Intervention
- CO3. Apply Psycho social Problem Solving process
- CO4. Draw strategies for Social Action
- CO5. Organize meetings in groups and communities
- CO6. Arrange Specific programme media : Art and craft, clay modeling, drama, group discussion
- CO7. Facilitate students in School settings
- CO8. Handle group activities

Course Outcomes of the course “Communication Skills for Social Work Practice”

- CO1. Demonstrate effective communication skills
- CO2. Overcome different barriers in communication
- CO3. Develop non-verbal with verbal communication
- CO4. Promote interpersonal communication
- CO5. Ability to prepare for various speeches- welcome, vote of thanks etc
- CO6. Demonstrate skills in interview process and public speaking
- CO7. Skills in telephonic communication – basic rules, making and answering a call etc
- CO8. Use audio visual aids in communication

Course Outcomes of the course “Childhood Problems and Services”

- CO1. Acquire knowledge regarding the various childhood disorders and also treatments provided for it
- CO2. Identify the different childhood problems present in children and also provide necessary intervention.
- CO3. Know the various aspects of learning and a role of teacher in a child’s all-round development
- CO4. Understand regarding the different constitutional safeguards provided for the children for their safety and protection.
- CO5. Practice and seek the professional help during the time of child rights violation
- CO6. Understand the different legislations related to children

Course Outcomes of the course “Home Management”

- CO1. Prepares for a better home maker
- CO2. Knowledge to choose nutritious food in a changing market place
- CO3. Learn to take control of health
- CO4. Develop health promoting behaviors
- CO5. Plan and prepare nutritious food
- CO6. Improve the ability to balance work responsibilities with personal responsibilities
- CO7. Learn consumer skills
- CO8. Develop home management skills
- CO9. Learn managerial responsibilities and home making duties
- CO10. Learn self-reliant skills for effective living

Course Outcomes of the course “Developmental Psychology (Elective)”

- CO1. Develop knowledge regarding nature of developmental psychology
- CO2. Gain insight into heredity and environment and how it determines the growth and behavior of an individual
- CO3. Gain knowledge about the later developmental stages of human life span
- CO4. Acquire knowledge regarding formation of personality and factors influencing it

Course Outcomes of the course “Social Group Work”

- CO1. Handle the group independently to conduct various activities
- CO2. Realize various group dynamics in handling group work
- CO3. Utilize various resources in group work process
- CO4. Build bond among group members
- CO5. Promote group cohesion and group culture,
- CO6. Analyze Stages of group development
- CO7. Understand the role of the group worker in group work process
- CO8. Apply Group work process by various models (Remedial, Task, Growth)
- CO9. Organize community camp

Course Outcomes of the course “Early Stages of Human Development”

- CO1. Acquire knowledge regarding nature of developmental psychology
- CO2. Able to identify and assess the different behavior of an individual
- CO3. Acquire knowledge about how life of an individual begins
- CO4. Foster knowledge of prenatal, infancy and babyhood stages
- CO5. Demonstrate healthy and identify unhealthy practices during pregnancy and post-natal life
- CO6. Acquire knowledge about human life span
- CO7. Able to voice out against superstitious beliefs
- CO8. Develop the concept of early developmental stages in human growth and development
- CO9. Identify cause effect relationship in human behavior by assessing their early developmental stages

Course Outcomes of the course “Health Care”

- CO1. Develop holistic concept of health
- CO2. Know changing concepts of health and its impact
- CO3. Demonstrate Health care – using various medicinal concepts like Ayurveda, Alopathy, Homeopathy, Unani etc
- CO4. Function as a community health worker
- CO5. Give awareness to the household about the first aid
- CO6. Capability to Aware the community people in hazardous situation and to apply first aid system – burns, electric shock , lightning, fainting, epilepsy, suffocation, fractures, fall, bandages etc
- CO7. Educate the community to avail benefit through health institutions – national, State, District, Taluk and PHC

Course Outcomes of the course “Non Formal Education”

- CO1. Develop the concept of education in life
- CO2. Promotes to take responsibility for their own life
- CO3. Demonstrate role in society
- CO4. Acquire different skills
- CO5. Understand the need and role of adult and continuing education
- CO6. Knowledge about non formal programmes for children, youth and women
- CO7. Understand the magnitude of the problem of illiteracy
- CO8. Develop a critical concept of functional literacy
- CO9. Spread awareness about non formal education in society
- CO10. Creates responsible citizen

Course Outcomes of the course “School Social Work (Elective)”

- CO1. Basic knowledge of social work profession
- CO2. Understand between client and social worker
- CO3. Scope of social work profession/fields

- CO4. Various methods to do the social work profession
- CO5. Various services that can render to the society
- CO6. Write report fluently by the way of field work experience
- CO7. Become effective school social worker

Course Outcomes of the course “School Case Work”

- CO1. Foster skills on interviewing in counseling process
- CO2. Acquire skills to collect various information through interview
- CO3. Write spontaneous records about the case
- CO4. Utilize various tools like observation, listening, building relationship etc towards case work
- CO5. Function as a social case worker
- CO6. Demonstrate Specific skills in order to handle case work
- CO7. Prepare Intervention plan to deal with case work
- CO8. Foster knowledge about Various methods in intervention in case work
- CO9. Identify the suitable Techniques in helping the client
- CO10. Independently handle case work process

Course Outcomes of the course “Later Stages of Human Development”

- CO1. Foster knowledge about the later developmental stages of human life span
- CO2. Ability to demonstrate effective personality
- CO3. Assessment of personality of self and others through tools of personality assessment
- CO4. Identify the causes for personality changes among individual
- CO5. Critically analyze the theories of personalities
- CO6. Identify assess and understand the various types of behaviors exhibited by adolescence
- CO7. Promotes better and healthy adult life
- CO8. Encourage people to adopt healthy life style
- CO9. Demonstrate role in multidisciplinary team

Course Outcomes of the course “Health Education”

- CO1. Develop knowledge and skills for improving health status
- CO2. Create awareness in the community about the communicable diseases
- CO3. Create awareness in the community to control and prevent various communicable diseases
- CO4. Develop the idea to come out from hazardous Infections like – chickenpox, Measles, German measles, mumps, diphtheria, whooping cough, TB
- CO5. Impart awareness to community people about zoonoses (Rabbits, Kyasanur forest diseases) Tetanus, Leprosy, STD
- CO6. Effective role in hospital service

Course Outcomes of the course “Education for Social Change”

- CO1. Analyze the Indian situation
- CO2. Examine the role of education for social change
- CO3. Understand the various approaches of education and non formal education
- CO4. Demonstrate skills and techniques for effective teaching
- CO5. Promotes to use different teaching aids
- CO6. Promotes capacity to adopt change
- CO7. Knowledge about distance and open education
- CO8. Promotes to be productive citizen
- CO9. Identify the opportunities in online education

Course Outcomes of the course “Personality Development (Elective)”

- CO1. Gain knowledge about the later developmental stages of human life span
- CO2. Acquire knowledge regarding formation of personality and factors influencing it
- CO3. Make assessment of personality of self and others through tools of personality assessment
- CO4. Find out the causes for personality changes among individual
- CO5. Critically analyze the theories of personalities

Course Outcomes of the course “Social Case Work with Families”

- CO1. Promotes effective family living
- CO2. Understand the role and responsibilities in family life
- CO3. Analyze the complexities present in family and able to do the possible intervention
- CO4. Identify the different dynamics present in the family
- CO5. Demonstrate skills in elderly care
- CO6. Promotes balancing work and family life
- CO7. Critically analyze problems of working women
- CO8. Work with families in crisis
- CO9. Work as a global social worker

Course Outcomes of the course “Social Work with Communities”

- CO1. Understand the types community
- CO2. Develop different cultural, religious and socio-economic aspects in communities
- CO3. Work in Rural community
- CO4. Work in Urban community
- CO5. Work in Tribal community
- CO6. Mobilize various qualities in working with communities
- CO7. Handle various community dynamics – Caste, classes. Sex differences, power dynamics, relationship, social conflicts etc
- CO8. Work in Gram Panchayath
- CO9. Work with SHGs
- CO10. Efficiency in mobilizing community resources

Course Outcomes of the course “Social Welfare Administration”

- CO1. Look to the welfare organization and try to understand the theoretical aspect of various organizations
- CO2. Understand the importance of welfare
- CO3. Help the community to avail welfare schemes
- CO4. Able to work in administrative set up
- CO5. Competent to work in NGO
- CO6. Acquire knowledge about NGO
- CO7. Demonstrate effective executive responsibilities

Course Outcomes of the course “Problems of Indian Society”

- CO1. Help the marginalized people
- CO2. Tapping Govt resources to help the poor in the areas of – employment, housing etc
- CO3. Reach Govt Programmes like SGRY, PMGSY PMGY to the needy
- CO4. Conduct Training Programme for unemployed youths under TRYSEM
- CO5. Guide the community BPL towards awaits MNREGA
- CO6. Demonstrate the qualities of social worker
- CO7. Help the community through Urban development schemes like HUDCO, Indira Awaas, Credit cooperatives, Samagra Awaas Yojna
- CO8. Competent to work with disaster prone families

Course Outcomes of the course “Weaker Sections of Indian Society”

- CO1. Analyze the social, economic and political situation of SC, ST and other categories of weaker sections
- CO2. Work with weaker sections
- CO3. Acquire knowledge about caste system
- CO4. Identify the problems of differently abled individual
- CO5. Examine the problems of agricultural labourers
- CO6. Analyze the problems of bonded labour
- CO7. Helps the student to analyze the situation of Indian women
- CO8. Work with weaker sections
- CO9. Demonstrate effective skills in handling weaker sections
- CO10. Critically examine the disabilities of weaker sections

Course Outcomes of the course “Human Relations and Skill Development”

- CO1. Develop the necessary skills for social work practice
- CO2. Inculcate positive attitude and understand its influence on behavior
- CO3. Empower learners to effectively manage themselves for personal and professional advancement
- CO4. Handling conflict management
- CO5. Building the teams and team work
- CO6. Effective communicator/leader
- CO7. Work as stress manager
- CO8. Effective utilization of Time in professional practice
- CO9. Develop positive attitudes
- CO10. Competent to work with human relationship

Course Outcomes of the course “Social Group Works in various Settings”

- CO1. Develops theoretical knowledge regarding social group work practice
- CO2. Competency in handling groups
- CO3. Work with children and youths
- CO4. Foster skills of professional social worker
- CO5. Competency to solve problems of individual through group work
- CO6. Demonstrate skills of a group worker
- CO7. Strengthen the quality of team spirit while working in groups
- CO8. Handle group in any circumstance

Course Outcomes of the course “Community Organization and Development”

- CO1. Develop different approaches in Community Organization
- CO2. Develop an understanding of the role of Social Work in disaster Management
- CO3. Understand the importance and methods of Participatory Rural Appraisal (PRA) in community work
- CO4. Project formulation, monitoring and evaluation
- CO5. Resource mapping
- CO6. Effective project organizing
- CO7. Encourage peoples participation
- CO8. Play the role of Community worker: as Guide, Enabler, The Expert

Course Outcomes of the course “Social Work Research and Statistics”

- CO1. Develop knowledge regarding research and its process
- CO2. Recognize and utilize research as a problem solving process in social work
- CO3. Gain knowledge regarding drawing sample for research

- CO4. Conduct simple need based survey in the field work practicum
- CO5. Understand the various methods of data collation and proper utilization of it during the time of primary data collection
- CO6. Process the collected data
- CO7. Conduct minor research projects in the chosen area
- CO8. Competency to write research proposal and research work report in a clear and accurate manner
- CO9. Function as a member of research team

Course Outcomes of the course “Contemporary Challenges of Indian Society”

- CO1. Competent to Train the people to undergo in sustainable programme
- CO2. Promote and strengthen the people to understand their capacity in building the society
- CO3. Educate the girls in building bridges for future
- CO4. Able to Educate the community people about population explosion and its impact
- CO5. Convey about population policies, use of contraceptives, safe methods in population control etc in controlling population
- CO6. Competent to train the people in sustainable development activities
- CO7. Promote peace and harmony in the community
- CO8. Competent to encourage women towards empowerment
- CO9. Create awareness in community people to avail Jan Lok Pal bill when need arise in terms of corruption
- CO10. Promote Micro Finance System in village level

Course Outcomes of the course “Development of Weaker Sections”

- CO1. Acquire knowledge about development of weaker sections
- CO2. Acquire knowledge about constitutional and legal safeguard for sc and st
- CO3. Analyse reservation policy in India
- CO4. Assess government the and non government strategies used for the development of weaker sections
- CO5. Respond sensitively to the problems of social inequality and injustice
- CO6. Work with weaker sections
- CO7. Identify the NGOs working for the welfare of weaker sections
- CO8. Spread awareness on welfare programs of government in the community
- CO9. Fosters interest about welfare of weaker sections
- CO10. Demonstrate the role of a changing agent in the community

Course Outcomes of the course “Mass Communication”

- CO11. Understand the role of Information Technology and other modern means of communication
- CO12. Develop knowledge and importance of written communication and enhance writing skills
- CO13. Foster Advertisement skills
- CO14. Apply visual aids in communication
- CO15. Use of internet in social work practice
- CO16. Draft letter/CV
- CO17. Knowledge about RTI Act
- CO18. Utilize Folk media in community work
- CO19. Competent to write reports
- CO20. Ability to work as a public relation officer